TRANSMITTAL LETTER

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450
SIR:

This is in response to the Notice of Abandonment Under 37 CFR 1.53 (f) or (g) dated May 8, 2006.

Prior to the receipt of the above Notice, Applicants and Applicants' attorney became aware that the above-identified application had been abandoned.

On April 7, 2006, Applicants' attorney, Raymond J. Lillie, filed (i) a petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally; (ii) a declaration executed by inventors Angus George Dalglish and Stanley D. T. White; (iii) a declaration executed by Gareth Williams; (iv) a check in the amount of $1,500.00; and (v) a date stamp receipt card. Copies of these materials accompany the response.

The declaration of Gareth Williams was filed because one of the inventors, Jonathan Heeney, did not execute an oath or declaration. Gareth Williams is a Chartered Patent Attorney in the United Kingdom and a European Patent Attorney who was responsible for the filing and prosecution of the corresponding PCT Application No. PCT/GB03/000342, which was filed on behalf of the assignee, Aimsco Limited.

Subsequent to the filing of the above-identified application as the national phase application of PCT Application No. PCT/GB03/000342, Mr. Williams, through Aimsco's attorneys, attempted to obtain Mr. Heeney's signature on an oath or declaration, which was sent to Mr. Williams by Mr. Lillie. Mr. Williams and Aimsco's attorney were unable to obtain Mr. Heeney's signature, although Mr. Heeney had been contacted at this last known address and telefax number.

It is respectfully requested that the petition to revive an unintentionally abandoned application, filed April 7, 2006, be granted, and that the application be accepted without an executed oath or declaration from Mr. Heeney.
